

Day Glow Introduction

Day Glow is an innovative new controller for LED lights.

With the introduction of LEDs powerful enough for general illumination, a reasonable replacement for the incandescent light bulb. Light Emitting Diodes offer far more possibilities for control. They can be switched on and off very rapidly, far faster than the eye can distinguish. By varying the amount of time the LED is on, it is possible to smoothly alter the brightness from nothing to fully on in tiny increments.